I would like to send out a huge THANK YOU to everyone for all of the calls, cards, food and especially the support and prayers during the time of Fred's passing.

My love to all,
Sheila Humphrey

I hope everyone had a happy holiday season, it's good to start off with a new year.

If you haven't been around for a while, make plans to stop in for a visit, you will see some great changes happening at the post. The back patio is almost completely enclosed. The remodel of our dining area and restrooms should start any day. There will be a lot of painting and cleaning going on so we can be ready for the Cootie Convention in April. If you have some time on your hands and would like to help, please call me or Frank at the home post. .

We haven't made our 100% yet in membership, but we are really close. If you have a money problem and cannot pay your dues, please give me a call as we try to help our membership as much as possible.

Remember, the third Tuesday of each month is meeting night. I hope to see all of you there.
